Immingham Habrough & Stallingborough Report for May

Crime

There were 63 crimes recorded for April in the Immingham, Habrough and Stallingborough area of the NPT.

These included:

Domestic Burglary:

1 During the early afternoon of 19th April two males entered the rear garden of a property on Pilgrim Avenue by climbing over an adjoining fence. They forced the bottom of an up & over door causing an alarm to activate. The males made off empty handed. Around lunch time on 28th April an attempt was made to force a garage door at a property on Berwick Court. No entry was gained. About 6pm the same day a door handle was tried at home on Sackville Road. The door was secure so no entry gained.

Commercial Burglary: 1 On 7th April the Immingham Golf Club was broken into through a balcony window. It is unknown if anything was stolen.

Damage 4:

Oasis Academy windows smashed.

Hadleigh Road house windows smashed.

Sackville Road damage to a house window

Waterworks Street graffiti painted on a car.
